

JAMES T. DOWLING-HEALEY

54 Westwood Road, West Hartford, Connecticut 06117

(860) 543-9554

james.dowlinghealey@gmail.com

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/james-dowling-healey-90541037/>

SUMMARY

I am a biologist and attorney with experience working with and for universities, government agencies, and private companies. I have supervisory experience, including experience supervising college students in laboratory conditions, and I have experience working with diverse teams of people.

BAR ADMISSIONS

Connecticut

EDUCATION

University of Saint Joseph, West Hartford, Connecticut

M.S., Biology, 2022

- GPA: 4.0
- Completed courses: Cell Biology, Mammalogy, Ecology, Evolution, Environmental Science, Forensic Entomology, Foundations of Public Health, Epidemiology, Animal Behavior, and Emerging Infectious Diseases
- Certificate in Environmental Science, 2022
- Beta Beta Beta (TriBeta) Biological Honors Society: Graduate Member

University of Maine School of Law, Portland, Maine

J.D., May 2015

- Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Award – International and Oceans Law
- My essay, “The Abstruse Legality of Assassination in the Modern World” was selected by my professor for consideration for a legal writing award.
- Study Abroad- National University of Ireland, Galway (Fall 2014). My studies focused on European Union, Irish, and International trade law.
- International Law Society: President

Bates College, Lewiston, Maine

B.A., Politics, May 2012

- Study Abroad - Saudi Arabia. I studied Saudi culture, history, politics, economics, and language (April-May 2012)
- Bates College Television: Anchor, Chief Political Analyst, Reporter
- Ad Hoc Appeals Committee: Member. I reviewed appeals from conduct committee decisions
- Biology Club: Member

Harvard Business School Online

Credential of Readiness (CRe) January-April 2019

- Harvard Business School’s online primer on the fundamentals of business thinking—a 150-hour, three-course online program meant to get students read to integrate into the business world. “CRe was developed by HBS faculty members to instill a deep understanding of essential business concepts and problem-solving skills.”

Stanford University Graduate School of Business, Stanford, California

Summer Institute for General Management, June - July 2011

- Classes on economics, marketing, accounting, finance, ethics, strategy, and management (a “mini-MBA” program)

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

The University of New Haven

Adjunct Faculty, 8/2022-12/2022

- I taught the classroom portion of two sections of Biology 2253: Molecular Basis of Life. That course covered a variety of topics including biomolecules, photosynthesis, cellular respiration, cell structure and function, gene expression, and cell division. I taught and supervised students, proctored exams, and graded assignments.

Connecticut River Conservancy

Water Quality Scientific Consultant, 7/2022-8/2022

- I assisted with E. coli monitoring at sample sites along the Connecticut River. My role involved fieldwork, labwork, teamwork, and paperwork. My duties included water sample collection, transportation, preparation, and review. My position included the use of water sampling equipment, a coliform detecting reagent, an incubator, and a UV viewing cabinet.

The University of Saint Joseph

Adjunct Faculty in Biology, 9/2021-5/2022

- I taught and supervised students, modified and gave presentations, oversaw laboratory sessions, ensured the proper use and storage of equipment, made myself available for office hours, and graded homework. Classes co-instructed included Principles of Environmental Science, Earth Science, and Environmental Health.

Ocean State Job Lot

Front End Supervisor, 4/2021-12/2021

- I supervised cashiers and other store employees, oversaw compliance with regulations and store procedures, rang products, handled returns and exchanges, managed money, maintained area cleanliness, ensured the availability of carts, made announcements, and performed other duties as needed.

McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, LLC

Associate Attorney, 2019-2020

- I worked as an associate attorney at McCalla Raymer Leibert Pierce, a financial services and mortgage banking law firm with offices in ten states. The primary focus of my practice was foreclosure law. My job responsibilities included short calendar hearings, document review, and foreclosure mediations.

Connecticut Judicial Branch

Temporary Assistant Clerk, 2016-2019

- I drafted orders, swore witnesses, managed files and exhibits, handled inmate filings, did research, proofread memoranda, and aided members of the public.

Shimkus, Murphy, and Rosenberger, P.C., Hartford, Connecticut

Legal Assistant, Summer 2014

- Drafted memos on issues related to ongoing cases, conducted legal research, searched land records, wrote letters, and communicated with companies and government agencies.

Community Mediation Program, Brunswick, Maine

Intern, Summer 2013

- Helped develop a new mediation program that will serve veterans. I researched relevant legal issues and summarized them for my coworkers. I also drafted documents for the program and assisted with the general mediation program that helps people, organizations and communities resolve conflicts.

Office of U.S. Congressman John Larson, Hartford, Connecticut

Intern, Summer 2011

- Wrote letters of support for grants, helped with casework and events, responded to constituent inquiries, prepared documents, and organized and catalogued awards.

Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center, Hartford, Connecticut

Intern, Marketing Department, Summer 2011

- Assisted with drafting of prepared remarks and various promotional materials.

Governor M. Jodi Rell, Hartford, Connecticut

Intern, Communications Office, Summer 2009

- Drafted press releases, wrote briefs summarizing press conferences, and dealt with the press and several state government agencies.